DAVID XIAO

http://ca.linkedin.com/in/dxiao168 • 416.670.2282 • ddd.xiao@gmail.com

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

An experienced IT director in the second-largest consumer book publisher in the world with emphasis in: strategic planning, software development management, and staff empowerment. A collaborative leader with sterling integrity, who manages full stack application development. Adept at building, retaining, and leading high-performance team by hiring, developing and motivating skilled professionals. Excellent problem solver with the ability to consistently produce high quality solutions that meet both requirements and deadlines. Mastery of turning conceptual ideas into working solutions.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Architected a global sale process system to process all retails sales files into finance ERP system and saved $2M for the company; the system is running on Google Cloud Platform and can be deployed to any cloud including AWS and Azure
- Led a small software development team and replaced online e-books fulfillment system in less than three weeks and ensured e-commerce site to continue selling e-books to royal customers
- Built company e-commerce web site with internal and external software engineers using open source technologies and increased online sales by 300%
- Designed solutions for building multiple branding web sites for different business units across organization
- Implemented company author portal and enable authors to interact with editors, check their book sales, view royalty statements and download book covers
- Built online emails tracking tool to help marketing stay compliance with CASL and integrated with 3rd-party newsletter campaign platform
- Standardized marketing web sites development using WordPress
- Replaced company Sibel CRM system with in-house open source solution using Spring Framework and saved $1M upgrade cost and on-going Sibel license support fee
- Managed teams of 32 members across network service, help desk, software development and production support; introduced tools to streamline collaboration within IT and across the company

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

HARPERCOLLINS CANADA AND HARLEQUIN 2014 – PRESENT

Director, Enterprise Applications

- Architected a global sales processing system using Spring Framework and other open source technologies; the application is deployed with Kubernetes on GCP
- Led a team of 4 software engineers and integrated company's e-commerce site with a new e-books fulfillment system in less than three weeks
- Standardized marketing web sites development by using WordPress and deployed on private cloud
- Automated marketing web sites SSL certification issuing and installation using Let's Encrypt and saved $15,000 per year
- Built online tool and integrated with 3rd party newsletter campaign platform and helped marketing stay compliance with CASL
- Implemented privacy policies and cookie management solutions for company web sites to stay compliance with CCPA

- Redesigned and deployed HarperCollins Canada online community using AngularJS and run on GCP
- Worked with internal and external developers and launched several mobile apps on iOS and Android platform
- Built a CMS for marketing team to update contents and push notification for mobile apps
- Designed solutions for building multiple branding web sites for different business units across organization, including harlequintradepublishing.com and carinapress.com
- Implemented Big Data solutions for business reporting and replaced traditional BI tools and Excel reports
- Worked with security team and scan all online applications as part of SDLC

HARLEQUIN ENTERPRISES LIMITED 2011 – 2014

Director, Infrastructure and Network Services

- Managed teams of 32 members across network services, help desk, software development and production support
- Introduced tools to streamline collaboration within IT and across organization
- Implemented online e-books sales on harlequin.com and integrated with 3rd party DRM platform
- Built Harlequin My Reward program online and reward loyal customers for FREE books and receive exclusive online coupons
- Rolled out ERP system globally to support oversea business
- Led ERP development team and network service team and successfully upgraded company ERP system to latest release with major architect changes
- Replace legacy finance budgeting system with latest web technologies and accessible online by all finance teams
- Replace company Sibel CRM system with in-house open source solution and saved $1M upgrade cost and on-going Sibel license and support fee.
- Designed and implemented global royalty web application for digital sales
- Tokenized credit card processing and achieved PCI compliance for Harlequin
- Worked closely with CIO and set IT budget for operation, data center, networking, hardware and software development

HARLEQUIN ENTERPRISES LIMITED 2001 – 2011

Manager, Software Development

- Worked with marketing team, internal and external developers and launched eharlequin.com on ATG platform
- Led a team of software engineers and DBAs and redesigned company e-commerce web site, harlequin.com, using open source technologies including Spring Framework, Hibernate, Tomcat, Apache and deployed in Linux servers
- Design and implemented online payment management for off-line customers to pay outstanding invoice online and integrated with in-house CRM system
- Built Harlequin Author Portal for authors to check their books sales, royalty statements and download books assets online through the portal
- Design and developed online acquisition web site, readerservice.com, for direct-to-consumer department to acquire customers online and increase sales; also built CMS for marketing team to update product information, promotion messages and email templates

- Implemented several marketing web sites using Microsoft .NET
- Implemented disaster recovery plan with software development team and internal business partners; conducted DRP testing twice a year
- Set policies and standards for software development team

DALEEN TECHLOGIES INC. 1998 – 2001

Software Engineer II

- Migrated C++ applications to Java based applications and integrate with online billing systems
- Implemented key modules for company online billing management systems for major tele companies
- Designed and implemented an e-Care online application and integrated with Metasolv TBS on Windows NT, using JDBC, Java Servlet and JSP XML
- Worked with QA team and resolved online billing system performance issues for one of big clients
- Installed and supported billing system on-site for one of clients

EDUCATION – CERTIFICATIONS – AWARDS

B.Sc. in Computer Science

- Fuzhou University, 1992

Courses & Training

- Google Cloud Platform, 2019
- AWS Solution Architect Associate Certification Training, 2018
- Agile Project Management Training, 2013
- Project Management, 2010

Awards

- Accelerated Learners Group (TorStar Corporation), 2009
- Employee of the Month, 1999

INTERESTS

Fitness training, basketball, gardening, cooking, travel, music